ANNOUNCEMENT

When Hon. Duncan Marshall, of Alberta, T. A. Russell, of Toronto, and J. A. Watt, of Elora, decided last spring to make an importation of Shorthorns from Scotland, they had in mind a definite plan to strengthen their own herds. The cattle were bought with this in view. The selection was not delegated to any one outside, but Messrs. Marshall, Watt and Russell, Sr., spent two months themselves in Britain, visiting the Edinburgh, the Royal, the Highland and other shows, and inspecting the famous herds of the Mother Land. By picking up one animal here, and another there, they gradually secured an importation of outstanding excellence, comprising winners at Edinburgh, the Royal, the Highland, Birmingham and Belfast shows.

The disastrous fire in October, which destroyed Mr. Russell's main stock barn, together with the greater part of his year's crop, has led to a recasting of plans, and the decision was reached to offer for sale the whole importation without reserving any for the importers themselves.

Shorthorn breeders will find this sale full of animals which combine the choicest breeding with individual excellence in a way seldom to be found.

A pair of the matrons and their calves.
